THRALL, TEXAS

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes

Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hughes:-

I thank you for sticking to your job, regardless of meddlers who wish younger men whom can be twisted as a young limb on a tree.

My wife and I, 79 and 85 are still active mentally, and if we did not know more now, than when we were fifty, we would be ashamed of ourselves.

Since booze, gamblers and sit-downers, are now more in the lead than ordinary, it is a time to stand for something.

Yours very truly,
S.B.Kirkpatrick, M.D.
