

July 1, 1938.

Mr. Howard H. Lary,
Regional Administrator,
Securities and Exchange Commission,
1706 Walton Street,
Denver, Colorado.

Sir:

You are hereby empowered to sign travel orders authorizing employees of the Denver Regional Office to perform travel on the official business of this Commission.

This should not be construed as authorizing you to sign orders changing the permanent duty station of any employee.

Yours faithfully,

Wm. O. Douglas
Chairman

Returned to Mr. Riordon for mailing. July 13, 1938