  - 1. I reside at 2418 Riverside Drive, Santa Ana, California.
- 2. I have known Constantino V. Riccardi, of Phoenix, Arizona, for approximately two years and I have known Princess Doris Farid-es-Sultaneh, of Morristown, New Jersey, since July, 1945.
- 3. On August 22, 1945, I visited Princess Doris Farid-es-Sultaneh at her home in Morristown, New Jersey, for the purpose of discussing with her a business transaction in which we were interested. While I was at her home, the Princess asked me to take to her apartment in New York City two mirrors. I complied with her request and used her Chevrolet truck to transport the mirrors from her Morristown home to her New York City apartment.

for the truck. She also packed for me a chicken lunch. I drove the truck with the articles to Mr. Riccardi's ranch in Phoenix.

- 5. During the first week of September, 1945, I again visited the Princess at her Morristown home to discuss further the business transaction in which we were interested. I drove to New Jersey from Phoenix, in Mr. Riccardi's station wagon. I was prepared to return to Phoenix two days after my arrival at the Princess' home. She suggested that as long as I had the station wagon and it was empty, I might just as well take with me some other household articles to Mr. Riccardi. She assisted me in loading the station wagon. I drove these articles to Mr. Riccardi's ranch.
- 6. In November, 1945, Mr. Riccardi showed me the bill of sale for the Chevrolet truck. Mr. Riccardi told me that the Princess had sent the bill of sale to him in order that the truck might be sold.
